QMS Internal and Supplier Auditor (Live)

COURSE SYNOPSIS

ISO 9001:2015

QMS Internal and Supplier Auditor (Live)

Introduction:

The course is designed for those who wish to conduct internal or supplier audits using the guidance of ISO 19011. The audit criteria used for exercises and assessments is from the ISO 9001:2015 standard. It is therefore necessary for Learners taking this course to be intimately familiar with this standard.

Audit techniques are presented in a logical sequence that follow the practical cycle of an audit programme.

Course outcomes:

- Ability to manage the life-cycle of an audit programme.
- Ability to employ the techniques needed to conduct internal and supplier audits using the requirements of ISO 9001:2015.
- Satisfy the ISO 9001 requirements for auditor competence.

Who should attend:

- Those responsible to manage an internal or supplier audit programme.
- Anyone that conducts internal or supplier audits.
- Those seeking to be informed on how audits are managed and conducted.

Benefits:

- Techniques for effective internal quality audits designed to add value to an organisation.
- Knowledge of how to assess quality management arrangements for improved governance.
- Methods to assess suppliers with and without formal quality management systems in place.
- Satisfy requirements for proof of auditor competence.
- Developed by auditors with decades of business and audit experience.

Knowledge of practical audit techniques is efficiently gained through the use of live online presentations in a webinar format. This information is further supplemented by written notes, pro-forma templates, case studies and exercises.

Online delivery of learning modules, in the format of a webinar, that include presentation and assessment, is conducted in segments of 3 hours per day over a four-day period. This duration includes presentations, participation in exercises and interactive discussions.

The facilitator interacts with the class online to assess teamwork, monitor progress and answer questions. The class is also able to collaborate online in a secure environment under the guidance of the facilitator.

Although beneficial, it is not entirely necessary to have a copy of ISO 19011 when taking this course however, the ISO 9001:2015 standard is essential for exercises and assessments and is not provided as part of the courseware. Copies of either of these standards can be obtained from your national standards body or from www.iso.org

Learning is reinforced with assessment derived from each module. A 70% aggregate or more, will gain a certificate of successful completion.
